Description of the Examination

The Principles of Management examination covers material that is usually taught in an introductory course in the essentials of management and organization. The fact that such courses are offered by different types of institutions and in a number of fields other than business has been taken into account in the preparation of this examination. It requires knowledge of human resources and operational and functional aspects of management.

The examination contains approximately 100 questions to be answered in 90 minutes. Some of these are pretest questions that will not be scored.

Knowledge and Skills Required

Questions on the CLEP® Principles of Management examination require test-takers to demonstrate one or more of the following abilities in the approximate proportions indicated:

- Specific factual knowledge, recall and general understanding of purposes, functions and techniques of management (about 10 percent of the exam)
- Understanding of and ability to associate the meaning of specific terminology with important management ideas, processes, techniques, concepts and elements (about 40 percent of the exam)
- Understanding of theory and significant underlying assumptions, concepts and limitations of management data, including comprehension of the rationale of procedures, methods and analyses (about 40 percent of the exam)

Credit Recommendations
The American Council on Education has recommended that colleges grant 3 credits for a score of 50, which is equivalent to a course grade of C, on the CLEP Principles of Management exam. Each college, however, is responsible for setting its own policy. For candidates with satisfactory scores on the Principles of Management examination, colleges may grant credit toward fulfillment of a distribution requirement, or for a particular course that matches the exam in content. Check with your school to find out the score it requires for granting credit, the number of credit hours granted and the course that can be bypassed with a passing score.
